Ethan,

Hope everything is going ok with you? we miss you!

Yesterday we went to Magnolia park which is about 40 miles from here. There wasn't but one camper there and no employees. Since its winter they work on the honor system, you put $5.00 in a box & put a tag on your Rear view mirror. Theres a campground there, They have several cottages you can Rent, a swimming pool, paddle boats & canoes on a large lake To Rent. They have a picnic area, hiking trails, and signs everywhere telling you to watch out for Alligators. They have several tress with Georga Moss hanging from them, We took pictures but I know you don't have a phone so we can't send them for now. Its a Real neat park, I think you would like it, a good place to chill out & Rest.

The only weird thing we saw was the swimming pool is part of the lake Roped off & next to it is a Kiddy play ground & signs everywhere there saying beware of alligators. Who would want there kids simming & playing where there's Alligators. They surelly have life guards watching for Allegators.

when you get to come here, when we pick you up, will go to Savanna one day + tour all the old towns and Manshions (I can't spell for shit) They have Trolly tours, sounds like a good time.

Well I'll close for now, will write again tomarrow. We love you + sure do ~~miss~~ miss you, cant wait to see you!

We love you!
